Art Unit 1711

All remaining rejections and/or objections follow.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wang et al. (USP 5,599,877).

See the previous Office action at the paragraph bridging pages 2 and 3 et seq.

Applicant's arguments filed 6-24-03 have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Applicant's remarks regarding the rejection relying upon Talkowski are moot since this rejection is hereby withdrawn.

With regard to applicant's argument that the term "alloy" distinguishes over Wang et al. '877, Wang et al. blends his components and the term "alloy" as pertains to polymers merely refers to blends of polymers at least when viewing the term "alloy" in its broadest meaning. Unpatented claims are given their broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification and there is nothing in the specification to indicate that by "alloy" applicant means anything more than a blend of polymers. With regard to applicant's argument that Wang et al. discloses copolymers having no acid functionality, there is nothing in the instant claims which requires that applicant's methacrylic or acrylic polymers be in actual free acid form, i.e. non-neutralized. With regard to applicant's allegations regarding the morphology of Wang's compositions, applicant's compositions are not limited to any particular morphology. With regard to applicant's argument that Wang et al. teaches compatible blends with little or no phase separation in contrast to the instant invention, the instant claims are not limited to non-compatible blends with phase separation and even applicant's specification does not appear to contain such a teaching. The fact that applicant's specification may refer to more than one phase (not that limitations from the specification are read into the claims) is not in contradiction to Wang's disclosure of compositions having little or no phase separation. Wang gives no indication that the lack of phase separation pertains to microphase separation but rather it is likely that Wang is referring to macrophase separation or whether or not the Examiner is correct about this is immaterial as set out above. With regard to the ionomer in Example 25, a saponified material is not esterified and is in salt form, i.e. carboxylate form after saponification.

Art Unit 1711

Art Unit 1711

Applicant's remarks regarding Swidler are moot since this rejection is hereby withdrawn.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a).

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
